ABOUT YAGA

Yaga Corporation, founded in 2021 by Paul Fleming, is an Indigenous owned Construction and Infrastructure services provider, specialising in Height Access and Waste Management solutions. We work in partnership with Building and Construction companies to tailor a scope of work and package detailed for the Builder, and local communities, we collaborate with.

We aim to build careers and create opportunities, for Indigenous Australians, and establish a strong presence in the Construction Industry. By collaborating with us, your organisation will be actively involved in supporting communities, growing careers, and in Indigenous participation across Australia.

Together, we can make a difference.

We work to ISO certified policies and procedures to ensure the best service and outcome for all stakeholders. Yaga Corporation is Supply Nation Registered business.

BUSINESS MODEL INFORMATION

Operations

We effectively manage, control, and supervise our goods, services and people.

Labour Hire

Our workers are directly employed by us and perform labour tasks the organisation assigns. All of our staff are trained and accredited.

Truck Drivers

Our truck drivers are the heart of our transport operations as they plan the delivery and loading of skip bins.

Business Development Managers

Our critical thinkers hold great interpersonal and problem-solving skills working alongside our operations, estimators, and engineers to ensure the best service outcome and client satisfaction.

Estimators

We provide an in-depth description of the development, expenditures, and solutions needed for project to be executed safely and accurately.

Engineers

Our engineers are responsible for the structural analysis, designs, and function whilst optimising safety.

Services

Our methodology is designed to give every project manager the tools required to deliver, and to ensure that only the appropriate resources are allocated based on specifics of the project.

Customisation

We effectively manage, control, and supervise our goods, services and people.

Manufacturing

Yaga has direct partnerships with manufacturers of all scaffolding materials and accessories.
